AppleShare 1.0 File Services: User Limits

This article last reviewed: 1 September 1987

1. Users per server:

    a. Logged on: 25 maximum

    b. Registration file: virtually unlimited

2. Group capability:

    a. Registration file: virtually unlimited

    b. Group memberships per user: 15 maximum

    c. Groups having special access privileges to a folder: 1 maximum Note that a different set of access privileges can be assigned to EVERYONE in addition to the group privileges

3. Servers per AppleTalk network:

    -- Limited by LocalTalk only
         for example, you could have 31 servers and 1 user

    -- An AppleTalk internetwork connected by bridges could have a virtually unlimited number of Servers

4. Volumes per server:

    a. SCSI: 7 devices

    b. HD20: 2 devices

    -- Limited only by the Macintosh operating system and hardware:
       AppleShare can handle as many volumes as the Finder.

5. Groups per zone:

    a. Logged on: 25 maximum

    b. Registration file: virtually unlimited

6. Servers per zone:

     -- Limited only by LocalTalk
         for example, you could have 31 servers and 1 user

Keywords: <None>

==

19960215 11:05:19.00

Tech Info Library Article Number: 2138