TOPIC -----

If a customer wants to upgrade a LaserWriter IIf or LaserWriter IIg with the Revision 2.0 ROMs because the "Zapf Dingbats" font is contained in ROM, do they qualify for a free ROM Upgrade Kit?

DISCUSSION -----

No, because the addition of the "Zapf Dingbats" font in ROM, which provides faster font access for Macintosh users and accessibility for non-Macintosh users, is considered an enhancement.

If the customer wants to upgrade the ROMs for this purpose, the customer needs to purchase the LaserWriter IIf/IIg ROM Upgrade Kit from an Authorized Service Provider.
